Note 8:

If your partner is a British citizen without a passport, you must provide his/her full birth certificate (showing the parents' names), accompanied by at least one other formal document as evidence of ordinary residence in the UK for the last 3 years. Anyone born in the UK on or after 1 January 1983 will only be British by birth if a parent is a British citizen or settled in the UK at the time of the birth. In that case, we will need evidence of the nationality or immigration status of your partner's parents at the time of birth for us to be satisfied that he or she is a British citizen.

If your partner is a non-British citizen without a passport, you must provide a Home Office letter or other document showing that he/she has been granted indefinite leave to enter or remain in the UK, or leave as a refugee or beneficiary of humanitarian protection, accompanied by at least one other formal document as evidence of ordinary residence in the UK for the last 3 years.

Note 10: The items of correspondence should be addressed to you jointly or in both your names. Examples of acceptable items are listed below.

The dates of the items of correspondence should be spread evenly over the whole period you are relying on. They should be from at least 3 different sources.

If you do not have enough items in your joint names, you may also provide items addressed to each of you individually if they show the same address for both of you.

For example:

- four items of correspondence in joint names to the same address and 2 items addressed to each partner at the address. In total 8 items would need to be submitted
- if you and your partner have no bills or correspondence in joint names, you will need to submit 12 items (6 each) of correspondence, evidencing that you reside together at the same address

If you and your partner lived with relatives or friends for some or all of the period you are relying on, please provide a letter from the relative(s) and/or friend(s) confirming this.

If you did not live together for any part of the period you are relying on, tell us the reasons for this and whether you stayed in contact with each other during this time, and provide any relevant supporting evidence.

Please give an explanation on a separate sheet if you cannot provide 6 items; if the items are not addressed to both of you; or if they do not cover the period you are relying on.

Examples of acceptable items of correspondence
